The government of the United Arab Emirates announced that the official fees of Intellectual Property Rights in the UAE shall be increased as from May 29, 2015.

The decree was silent on existing and pending applications, however, we are following up the matter with the authorities to make sure that such decision should not affect the previous filed/pending applications.

You can view the new charges which will be implemented on May 29th, 2015 on the following link:
